

Professor Antonio-Carlos Pereira-Menaut is a “Doctor en Derecho” (PhD, Law, 1975) and a Professor of Law at the USC (Universidade de Santiago de Compostela, Galicia, Spain). Besides Spanish Constitutional Law, his other fields of interest are British and American Constitutional Law, European Union Constitutional Law, Regions, Federalism, and Constitutional Theory.

He holds a position of Professor of Spanish Constitutional Law and a Jean Monnet Chair devoted to the study of EU Constitutional Law.

Prof. Pereira-Menaut has travelled and lectured in a number of universities of Europe and America, including the US (among them Valparaiso University, Notre Dame University, William and Mary College, Catholic University of America), Britain, Portugal, Germany, Mexico, Chile, Perú, and Brazil.

He has published half a score of books (some of them reprinted several times in various countries) and some fifty contributions to academic journals of Spain, the US, Portugal, Chile, México, Belgium, and Italy.