

Ruth K. & Shepard Broad Distinguished Lecture Series

School of International and Public Affairs

US-Spain Relations Today

Lecture by the Honorable Alan D. Solomont,
US Ambassador to Spain and Andorra

September 19, 2011 | 10 AM - 11 AM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | Frost Art Museum

Alan D. Solomont is Ambassador of the United States to Spain and Andorra. He was chairman of the bipartisan Board of Directors of the Corporation for National and Community Service, appointed by President Clinton in 2000, re-appointed by President Bush in 2007 and elected chairman in 2009. Mr. Solomont has spent his professional career in the health and elder care arenas. He is Chairman of Solomont Bailis Ventures, which invests in early stage health care companies. He was the co-founder of HouseWorks, a home care company that helps seniors remain independent and supports families caring for aging relatives. He is also founder and managing director of Angel Healthcare Investors. As a Senior Fellow and Visiting Instructor at Tufts University, Mr. Solomont has taught an undergraduate political science course on the American Presidency. He has served on several nonprofit and for-profit boards, including the Boston Medical Center, Boston Private Bank & Trust Company, Angel Healthcare Investors, The New Israel Fund, Israel Policy Forum, the University of Lowell and the University of Massachusetts, Tufts University, John F. Kennedy Presidential Library Foundation, and the WGBH Educational Foundation. He has chaired the Board of Combined Jewish Philanthropies of Greater Boston and Hebrew Senior Life, a large nonprofit elder care provider in Boston. Mr. Solomont holds a B.A. in Political Science & Urban Studies from Tufts University and a B.S. in Nursing from the University of Massachusetts, Lowell.

Co-sponsored by the European Studies Program and the Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence
Event is free and open to the public. For more information, call 305-348-7266.