

MIAMI-FLORIDA EUROPEAN UNION CENTER OF EXCELLENCE

RESEARCH AWARDS 2011

The Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence is pleased to announce the availability of research awards for faculty and advanced graduate students working on European Union issues.

Faculty Research Award

One faculty research award of 3,000 Euros is available for research related to the European Union. All full-time faculty are eligible to apply and the research must be completed by August 31, 2010. The award may be used for any research related purpose, including travel, research assistance, data acquisition, and the like.

Graduate Student Doctoral Research Award

One graduate doctoral research awards of 2,000 Euros is available for research related to the European Union. Graduate students who have successfully defended doctoral dissertation proposals are eligible to apply and the research must be completed by August 31, 2011. The award may be used for any research related purpose, including travel, fieldwork, data acquisition, and the like.

Application:

- Proposals should be no more than three pages (double-spaced) with details of the research plan, and separately a proposed budget.
- Full-time faculty at the following institutions are eligible to apply:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Florida International University (FIU) ■ Florida Atlantic University (FAU) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ University of Central Florida (UCF) ■ University of South Florida (USF) ■ University of North Florida (UNF)
---	---

Application deadline:

- ▶ Applications are due Tuesday, February 15th, 2011
- ▶ Awards will be announced no later than Tuesday, March 8th, 2011
- ▶ Please submit proposals electronically to Christine I. Caly-Sanchez at calyc@fiu.edu.