The Future Prospect of Germany as Part of the West

Lecture by Henryk M. Broder

January 24, 2012 | 11:00 AM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | GL 220

Henryk Modest Broder (born Henryk Marcin Broder on 20 August 1946) is a Polish born German journalist and author. Broder is known for polemics, columns and comments in written and oral media. Broder wrote for the magazine Der Spiegel as well as its online version and the daily Berlin newspaper Der Tagesspiegel. Since 2010 he writes for Die Welt. He is co-editor of Der Jüdische Kalender (The Jewish Calendar), a compilation of quotes and texts relating to German Jewish culture, published annually. Broder is especially interested in Vergangenheitsbewältigung, Islam, Israel and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. He sees a close relationship between German criticism of Israel's policies and Antisemitism, a view criticized by, among others, the French-German columnist Alfred Grosser.

Co-sponsored by the Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence.
