

Miami World Music Festival

Sept.13-16, 2012

Florida International University - Modesto A. Maidique Campus
Wertheim Performing Arts Center—10975 SW 17th Street - Miami, FL 33199

The annual Festival features academic, traditional and contemporary music from diverse cultures performed by acclaimed world-class artists.

The festival emphasizes chamber music written by the greatest composers of all time, and also showcases music events using world's traditional folk instruments. The 2012 Festival presents five concerts representing music from Germany, Cuba, Spain, Russia & Argentina.

Program

Among the five concerts presented at FIU during the Festival, three will be representing music from Germany, Spain, and Russia

 Thursday, Sept. 13 | 8:00 p.m. | Music of Germany
Opening ceremony—The Miami Chamber Players
J. S. Bach, Brandenburg Concerti #3 & #6
J. Brahms, Piano Quintet in F m

 Saturday, Sept. 15 | 8:00 p.m. | Music of Spain
The Miami Guitar Trio comprised of Federico Bonacossa, Federico Musgrove, and Corey Harvin & Rafael Padron

 Sunday, Sept. 16 | 4:00 p.m. | Music of Russia
Pianists Kemal Gekic & Margarita Shevchenko
S. Rachmaninoff Suites No. 1 &

For detailed program, go to <http://www.miamiworldmusicfestival.com/>

► This event is organized by the South Florida Friends of Classical Music and FIU School of Music

The Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence and the European Studies Program at FIU support this event

