

“Corruption and Popular Attitudes about National Institutions and the European Union”

Thursday, March 7th, 2013
1:45 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Florida International University—MMC
11200 SW 8th Street Miami, FL 33199 –Green Library –GL 220

Dr. Tatiana Kostadinova

*Associate Professor
Politics and International Relations
Florida International University*

Tatiana Kostadinova’s research and teaching interests include political institutions with a special emphasis on electoral systems and reform, East European democratic transition, and comparative public policy. She is the recipient of several grants, among which are the American Political Science Small Research Grant (2002) for field research in the Balkans and a Fellowship Program Award from the German Marshall Fund of the United States (2003-2004). Her first book, Bulgaria 1879-1946: The Challenge of Choice (Columbia University Press), explores Bulgarian parliamentary elections, party strategies, and voter behavior. In 2012 Kostadinova published her second book, Political Corruption in Eastern Europe: Politics after Communism (Lynne Rienner) in which she analyzes the spread of corrupt practices and their effects on the quality of democracy in the region. Other publications include book chapters on political representation, and journal articles in American Journal of Political Science, Electoral Studies, Journal of Peace Research, European Journal of Political Research, Political Research Quarterly, Party Politics, and Europe-Asia Studies.

► RSVP by February 28th to calyc@fiu.edu

Sponsored by:

CSO
Europe Student Association
European Studies Program
Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence

Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence

FIU – 11200 SW 8th Street - SIPA 508 - Miami, FL 33199 | Tel: 305-348-5949 | miamieuc.fiu.edu