Conversations on Europe Whose Pivot Now? Implications of Growing EU-China Ties A Virtual Roundtable Series organized by the EUCE at the University of Pittsburgh

Tuesday, February 17, 2015 | 12 PM - 1:30 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | GL 156

In recent months the Chinese have greatly increased their visibility and economic involvement in Europe. China is now the EU's second leading trading partner and the EU is China's first. EU leaders are increasingly attentive to Chinese views on a number of issues, including a range of economic and strategic topics. Panelists on this Conversation will explore both the current state of EU-China relations, the implications for transatlantic ties and future directions of this dynamic relationship.

Panelists:

- Gemma Marolda, EUCE Affiliated Faculty member, Department of Political Science, University of Pittsburgh
- Isabel Hilton, Editor at Chinadialogue.net, an independent, non-profit organization based in London and Beijing
- David Scott, Consultant, Professor at Brunel University London (retired)
- Jing Men, InBev-Baillet Latour, Chair of European Union-China Relations at the College of Europe

This event is hosted by the European Union Center of Excellence-European Studies Center-University of Pittsburgh, and co-sponsored by the University Center for International Studies at the University of Pittsburgh and the U.S. Network of European Union Centers of Excellence.

Spaces are limited at FIU
