The European Refugee and Migration Crisis Panel Discussion

Tuesday, November 10, 2015 | 10 AM - 12 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | Green Library (GL) 220

Addressing the ongoing refugee and migration crisis in Europe, this panel will debate attempts by the European Union and its member states to develop a cohesive and responsible refugee and immigration policy consistent with humanitarian obligations. Scholars from a variety of disciplines will analyze how the refugee crisis evolved, what the issues of concern are, and what can and should be done to produce sustainable solutions to the European refugee and migration crisis.

Panelists:

- Dr. Ariane Chebel d'Appollonia, Professor of Public Affairs & Administration, Rutgers University
- Dr. Cristian Ivan, Romanian Fulbright Scholar, Western Illinois University
- Dr. Claire Oueslati-Porter, Visiting Instructor, Global & Sociocultural Studies FIU
- Dr. Markus Thiel, Associate Professor, Politics & International Relations, and Director, Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence and European & Eurasian Studies Program, FIU

The presentation will be moderated by Dr. Markus Thiel.

Sponsored by the Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence and the European & Eurasian Studies Program.

This event is free and open to the public. RSVP by Nov. 8, 2015 to calyc@fiu.edu.
