Program 1: Stuck in Love

Bastille Day (2015) | France—Director: Michaël Barocas—Length: 7 min
It's Bastille Day, and René has a date with Madeleine. As a couple of elders wander through the streets of Paris, feelings become entangled and emotions arise.

Bravoman (2016) | Russia—Director: Evelina Barsegian—Length: 18:00 min
Every evening, a deep-rooted cynic, Andrey, wears a smoking jacket and shouts “Bravo!” at theater performances. He gets paid for getting the audience emotional. Andrey is absolutely sure that all people lie until he meets the sincerest girl in the audience. Bravoman is a satirical comedy about the conflict between hypocrisy and sincerity, and about the way people pretend to be frank about their feelings.

The Jacket (2014) | Austria—Director: Patrick Vollrath—Length: 09:00 min
A boy meets a girl. It could be love. But there is this jacket, too. And the jacket will change everything.

The Love that could not be hidden (2013) | Spain —Director: Cristina Justribó and Isabel Gutiérrez Sánchez—Length: 10:00 min
Don Enrique and Leocadia are going to meet in a coffee bar. They are the perfect couple: she is deaf and he is a frustrated singer of Zarzuela.

Parallel (2012) | France—Director: Olivier l'Inconnu—Length: 03:00 min
A woman. The Paris metro. Thousands of passengers. There are few chances they will meet. There are few chances they will exchange a look. There are few chances they will meet again. A look, a word, a decision. A chance for true destiny. Until now. Neither one without the other.

Almost Perfect (2014) | Latvia—Director: Artis Dobrovoļskis—Length: 14:00 min
Katherine works at marketplace. She goes to the nightclub, but is not permitted to enter. There she meets gardener Edgar. Afraid of making a bad impression, they lie to each other about their occupations.
