
European and Eurasian Studies Program

Steven J. Green School of International and Public Affairs

European Film Series

Midnight in Paris

Tuesday, May 9th, 2017 | 2—4:30 p.m. | FIU Modesto A. campus—GC 150

Gil (Owen Wilson), a successful but distracted Hollywood screenwriter, and his fiancée, Inez (Rachel McAdams), are in Paris, vacationing with Inez's wealthy, conservative parents (Mimi Kennedy, Kurt Fuller). Gil is struggling to finish his first novel, which is about a man who works in a nostalgia shop, but Inez and her parents are critical and dismissive of Gil's desire to give up his lucrative Hollywood career to write it. While Gil is considering moving to the city, Inez is intent on living in Malibu. By chance, they are joined by Inez's friend Paul (Michael Sheen), a pseudo-intellectual who speaks with great authority but little actual accuracy on the history and art of the city. Inez idolizes him, but Gil, who is an ardent admirer of the Lost Generation, finds him insufferable .

RSVP by May 8th to Lana Pohlmann at lpohl001@fiu.edu

This event is free and open to the public — Funded by CSO

Co-Sponsored by:

European Student Association, European & Eurasian Studies Program, Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence