

Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence
European and Eurasian Studies Program

Conversations on Europe

World's Fairs & International Expositions

Tuesday, Feb. 26, 2019 | 12:00 p.m.—1:30 p.m. | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | GL 156

As a part of the ESC's Year of Global Europe, the ESC will devote this session of its virtual roundtable series to discussing the history of world's fairs and international expositions. Beginning in Europe in the nineteenth century, early world's fairs were used by European leaders to showcase technology and their imperial power. In the last century, non-European nations became active participants and hosts. Our panel of experts will explore this change over time and discuss the role of world's fairs and international expositions yesterday and today.

Moderator:

- Jae-Jae Spoon, Department of Political Science, European Studies Center, University of Pittsburgh

Panelists:

- Alexander C.T. Geppert, New York University
- Robert Rydell, Montana State University
- Anastasia Remes, European University Institute

► This event is free and open to all FIU students, but spaces are limited. Please RSVP to calyc@fiu.edu

Hosted by

European Studies Center, a Jean Monnet European Union Center of Excellence at the University of Pittsburgh

Co-Sponsored by:

UCIS, European Union Center at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign • Center for European Studies at North Carolina-Chapel Hill • Jean Monnet Center of Excellence at Florida International University