Thursday, April 11, 2019 | 8:00 PM - 9:45 PM | Miami Beach | New World Symphony's WALLCAST
SoundScape Park—400 17th Street (corner of 17th Street and Washington Avenue) - Miami Beach, FL 33139

(Weather permitting)

Join us for this comedy on the lawn in front of the New World Symphony's WALLCAST, a soaring, 7,000-square-foot projection wall that uses striking visual and audio technology. Make sure to bring blankets, beach chairs and a picnic, and get there early so you can set up. Open and free to the Public

Synopsis: In a story depicted in oil painted animation, a young man comes to the last hometown of painter Vincent van Gogh to deliver the troubled artist's final letter and ends up investigating the artist's final days. The film brings the paintings of Vincent van Gogh to life to tell his remarkable story. Every one of the 65,000 frames of the film is an oil-painting hand-painted by 125 professional oil-painters who travelled from all across the world to the Loving Vincent studios in Poland and Greece to be a part of the production.

European Film Award for Best Animated Feature Film. The film, written and directed by Dorota Kobiela and Hugh Welchman, is a Polish-UK co-production, funded by the Polish Film Institute, and partially through a Kickstarter campaign.
