

European Studies Program

School of International and Public Affairs

Blanka Rosenstiel Lecture Series on Poland

Church and State in Poland

Lecture by Anna Grzymala-Busse, University of Michigan

January 22, 2013 | 11:00 AM - 12:30 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | ZEB 120

Anna Grzymala-Busse is the Ronald and Eileen Weiser Professor of European and Eurasian Studies in the Department of Political Science at the University of Michigan, having previously taught at Yale University. She focuses on religion and politics, informal politics, and post-communist state development. Her first book, Redeeming the Communist Past, examined how discredited communist parties reinvented themselves as successful democrats. Her second book, Rebuilding Leviathan: Party Competition and State Exploitation in Post-Communist Democracies (2007) won the Association for Slavic, East European, and Eurasian Studies Ed A. Hewett Prize for best publication on the political economy of the former Soviet Union and East Central Europe.

Sponsored by the American Institute of Polish Culture [www.ampoloinstitute.org] and the Honorary Consulate of the Republic of Poland, Miami

Co-sponsored by the Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence

RSVP by January 18th to calyc@fiu.edu.
For more information, please call 305-348-5949

