

Ruth K. and Shepard Broad Distinguished Lecture Series

School of International and Public Affairs

Perspectives From the Incoming EU Presidency of Latvia Lecture by Ambassador Andris Razāns, Latvian Ambassador to the U.S.

Monday, November 10, 2014 | 2 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | SIPA Cafe

Ambassador Andris Razāns currently serves as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Latvia to the United States and Mexico. He has served in these posts since 2012 and 2013, respectively. Formally, he served as political director and undersecretary of state at the Latvian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, as well as desk officer of the Northern Europe Division. His first overseas assignment was to serve as second and third secretary at the Latvian Embassy in Copenhagen, Denmark. Ambassador Razāns received his MA degree in History from the Latvian State University.

In this presentation, Ambassador Razāns will discuss issues related to the Latvian Presidency of the European Union, as well as security in the Baltic region of Europe and bilateral relations with the U.S.

Co-sponsored by the Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence and the European Studies Program.

This event is free and open to the public. To RSVP, please click here.

For more information, please contact 305-348-7266.