Refugee Integration in Germany & Beyond
Panel Discussion with Consul General of the Federal Republic of Germany

Thursday, October 5, 2017 | 11 AM | FIU MMC | GC 150

For several years now, Europe has been experiencing a great influx of refugees. Germany has become home to the largest amount overall. This is both a great challenge and a great opportunity that will need to be managed appropriately, in particular with regards to the social and economic integration of refugees.

We will present the German, Swedish and European positions on refugee integration, ask what lessons can be applied from the German experience and discuss best practices in a European context.

Panelists:

Hon. Annette Klein, Consul General of the Federal Republic of Germany

Jeff Maslanik, Ph.D. student in International Relations, FIU

Moderator: Dr. Markus Thiel, Director, Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence and European & Eurasian Studies, FIU

Co-sponsored by

The Consulate General of the Federal Republic of Germany, The Middle East Studies Program, The Muslim World Studies Program, The Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence, The European Student Association

Funded by the Council for Student Organizations (CSO)

This event is free and open to all FIU students.

RSVP by Sept. 29 to Christine I. Caly-Sanchez at calyc@fiu.edu
