

MIAMI-FLORIDA JEAN MONNET CENTER OF EXCELLENCE

Child Rights in the European Union

Between International Norms and National Jurisdiction: The Case of Child Marriages

Tuesday, April 12, 2022

9:30am-10:45am | FIU-MMC | PG6-room 115

Register here

While child rights have become more prominent in international law & relations, there are still issues remaining with protecting minors. One major issue, child marriages are still allowed in many European countries and elsewhere. Prof. Hamann's research highlights the complexities of finding an EU-wide solution to impede child marriages in EU member states and abroad.

Speaker:

Kerstin Hamann, Ph.D.

Pegasus Professor & Interim Director of the India Center
School of Politics, Security, and International Affairs
University of Central Florida

Kerstin Hamann (Ph.D. Washington University) is Pegasus Professor in the School of Politics, Security, and International Affairs (SPSIA) at the University of Central Florida, Orlando. She holds a Ph.D. in Political Science, a Master's in Political Science, and a Master's in West European Studies (all from Washington University). She twice served as Vice President of the American Political Science Association (APSA). Hamann was honored with the Lifetime Achievement Award by the APSA Section on Political Science Education and served as Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Political Science Education. She also served as SPSIA Director (2011-2021). She is a Fellow at the European Institute for International Law and International Relations.

This event is free and open to the public and all FIU students

RSVP required by April 8 - Seats are limited

For more information, contact Christine I. Caly-Sanchez at calyc@fiu.edu

Sponsored and presented by The Miami-Florida Jean Monnet Center of Excellence

Co-sponsors : European & Eurasian Studies Program • Politics & International Relations • University of Central Florida - #EUintheUS